

Chalet Argali

Stylish 5 star ski-in, ski-out chalet for 14 with sauna

Enjoy the views and great snow from this high-altitude ski chalet close to pistes and village

Chalet Argali

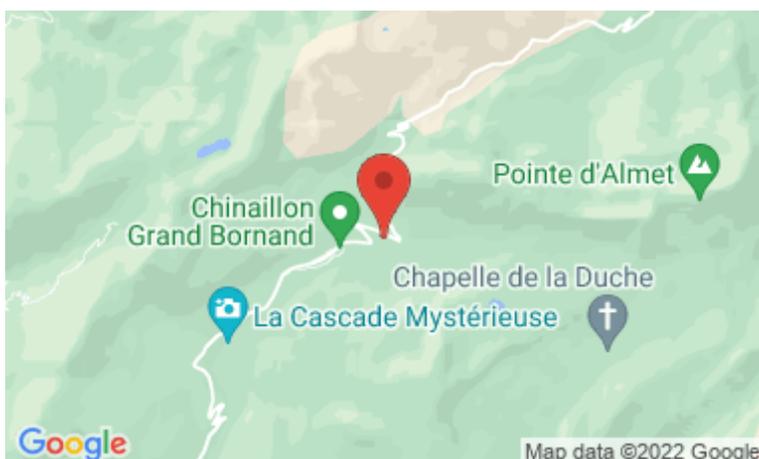

This newly-renovated 5 star chalet for 14 is right on the piste on the edge of the village of Chinaillon, near Le Grand Bornand. It's the perfect ski-in, ski-out property for experienced skiers (you'll be able to ski to the village and back, depending on snow conditions!), and for beginners, the Chinaillon lifts and ski school are just 1km away. In summer, you can walk into the mountains from the chalet, or wander down into the village.

At 1380m, you'll enjoy great snow in winter, fabulous views in summer and crisp, fresh air all year round.

There is plenty of space at Chalet Argali for a large group, whether they are friends or family. The accommodation is set over three floors, with plenty of separate seating areas where smaller groups can get together. However, there's also lots of room for everyone to eat together.

As well as being a great base for skiers, Chalet Argali has a lot to recommend it in summer too, with a petanque court, a sunny terrace with amazing views and a great summer kitchen where you can cook and eat outside. There is a sauna just outside the chalet, where you can relax at the end of a day in the mountains, and there are also plans for a hot tub on the terrace.

The owners, who also manage the chalet, live in the property directly behind Chalet Argali, so will welcome you on your arrival and answer any questions you have during your stay.
